

HOUSE OF RUTH
MARYLAND

Teen Initiative Service Costs

The House Of Ruth Maryland must balance between the needs of the community it serves and the actual costs of providing services. The agency charges for the following prevention services to ensure its ability to continue to provide free, immediate, crisis services to victims of intimate partner violence and their children.

Need-based scholarships are available on a limited basis (see link on Teen Initiative website page.) In addition, our Teen Initiative staff is happy to work with you to explore funding opportunities that may be available in your community.

You Love Me, You Love Me Not Workshop Series

This eight week curriculum is appropriate for school or community group settings. The focus of the workshops are on building healthy relationships, evaluating current relationships, identifying abusive behaviors, and accessing support resources. Sessions are designed to engage teens and encourage active participation. Current issues such as texting, social media, and bullying are incorporated. The program consists of eight, 60 minute sessions and can accommodate up to thirty teens. (If your program has more than 30 participants, pricing will need to be adapted to consider additional materials.)

Service cost: $3,200

Support Group for Teen Victims or Teen Witnesses

Therapeutic sessions can be designed for groups of teens who have experienced teen dating violence or have witnessed intimate partner violence in their families. These groups meet weekly for 60 minutes and can accommodate up to 12 participants. To appropriately work through trauma and create trust and cohesion between participants, it is recommended that groups meet consistently for at least three months.

Service cost: $2,400 (for 12 weekly sessions/3 months)
